Floral Folk Art Canvas Painting

Ukrainian folk art is an aspect of Ukrainian culture which can include music, dance, songs, decorative art and applied art. Art can be divided into several categories:

- Fine art: art made primarily for aesthetics or creative expression
- Folk art: reflects the cultural life of a community and encompasses the expressive culture associated with folklore and cultural heritage
- Applied art: all the arts that apply design and decoration to everyday and practical objects in order to make them aesthetically pleasing

Ukrainian applied art includes beautifully decorated pieces that can be used on a daily basis. This includes objects such as vases, spoons, bowls or plates, benches, homes, and even tools used in the field. One particular style that is famous is Ukrainian Petrykivka Painting which is known for its colorful floral motifs.

In this workshop, young artists will paint a floral work of art on canvas utilizing their initials and inspired by Ukrainian folk art and applied art ornamentation.
